Artist of the Month

1-17-01

Ryan Jeppesen has been chosen for this month's Artist of the Month present by the Friends of the Library and the Heber Valley Arts Council.

Ryan has lived in Wasatch County for a year now. He graduated from Utah State University with a bachelor's degree in Marketing and a minor in Vietnamese.

Ryan mainly uses watercolor, pencil, and acrylic in his art.

"I enjoy doing paintings that have an entire story behind them," he said. "My sport paintings for example, can have an entire storyline full with emotion and action all summed up into one picture."

Ryan has had plenty of experience and has entered many exhibits.

He has had entries in the Logan City Arts Exhibits, the USU Arts Exhibit, and has been the winner of various awards in the community and school art shows. Lots of luck goes out to Ryan in the future.

Ryan's exhibits will run from Jan. 16 until Feb. 26 at the library.

Roger Young Book Signing

Roger K Young, best selling author of the popular LDS series of books about the signs and events of the Last Days will be at Apple A Day on Thursday, January 18th for a book signing and informal chat from 4 to 6 p.m.. Apple A Day is located at 464 North Main in Heber.

Brother Young is the author of "As a Thief in the Night," "When Ye Shall See All these Things," "Behold the Fig Tree" and his latest book "Zion, the Holy City of New Jerusalem." Mr. Young, formerly a Utah resident, now writes from his home in Montana.

Following his very successful As a Thief in the Night he published two companion volumes; When Ye Shall See All these Things is a listing of recent and current events that possibly fulfill ancient and modern prophecy concerning many of the events leading up to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Behold the Fig Tree discusses the near future events emphasizing the thirteen month world war, judgments, plagues and the great scourge.... Behold the fig tree;....when they now shoot forth, ye see and know that summer is a hand.... likewise when ye see these things come to pass know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand." (Luke 21:29-32)

Mr. Young will also be presenting a free seminar in Utah County on Friday, January 19th where he will discuss issues concerning the Last Days and the Second Coming. Contact Apple A Day at 654-3010 for details.
